"To Know Christ and To Make Him Known"

Dear Siblings in Christ,

February marks the middle of winter. The Church marks this by celebrating the Presentation of our Lord. On February 2, while everyone else is worried about how much light and shadow a rodent sees, we gather to remember that Mary's time of purification is completed, and Jesus is brought to the temple to be presented. Traditionally the church has blessed all the candles they plan to use for the year that day during Candlemas.

Since we mostly use oil filled candles now, we have never blessed our worship candles. However, I thought it might be nice to invite you to bring in any candles you plan to use this coming year for a blessing. I am sure many of you still light candles for certain occasions. If you have a candle for dining or to fill your home with beautiful scents or even birthday candles you plan to use this year, bring them out for a blessing.

My hope is that even if you have no candles to bring along for a blessing, you might remember the light of Christ the next time you light a candle or even see a candle. The reason we still use candles for worship is to weekly remind ourselves that the light of Christ is among us. The season of Epiphany is a perfect time to focus on the light of Christ in our lives.

So, bring some candles to worship on Groundhog's Day this year. Let's celebrate Candlemas together and seek the light of Christ all year long!

A MESSAGE FROM STEWARDSHIP

STEWARD HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

There's no escaping love in February, is there? Everywhere—valentines, red roses, heart-shaped candy boxes, and other sweets for the ones we love.

This is all good and right, because ever since God declared that it is not good for a person to be alone (Genesis 2:18), people have found comfort, excitement, safety, companionship, joy, contentment, and fulfillment in the company of others.

That's why February is perfect for celebrating healthy, loving relationships of all sorts. Good stewards care for every gift God gives us—healthy, loving relationships especially. And because Jesus commanded us to love our neighbors and our enemies alike, we do well to work on relationships beyond our immediate circles.

SUGGESTIONS:

Couples: Give flowers and chocolate, sure, but also spend quality time with one another. Talk deeply and listen intently. Pray and read scripture together. Hold hands during worship. Talk often and listen deeply. Read Gary Chapman's "The 5 Love Languages" together.

Families: Rejoice in the love that holds you together—parents, grandparents, children, siblings, cousins—everybody. Organize Sunday family dinners. Say, "I love you." Talk through problems and work together.

Friends: Enjoy time with buddies but also cultivate deeper and more-spiritual friendships. Share problems and successes. Grow together in faith.

Church neighbors: Send friendship valentines to everybody in church. As a congregation designate “love your neighbor” Sunday at which you have a potluck. And/or movie night or game night.

Community neighbors: Send a valentine and a piece of candy to immediate neighbors—or everybody in your address book to let them know that friendships and neighbors are important. Start, or revive, block parties, community cleanup days, yard sales or fellowship gatherings.

God gives us relationships of all kinds so that we can have companionship, friendship, security, and joy. As stewards of all that God gives us, we can nourish and celebrate healthy, strong relationships.
